THE STAR AMMONIATED SOLUBLE SUPER PHOSPHATE, having gained on its own merits, the greatest reputation of any fertilizer ever sold in the United States,—Other manufacturers, are using the trade mark of the "STAR," for their articles, much inferior in quality, and that cost 10 per cent. less. In order to make money for themselves, regardless of the interest of the poor farmer. The manufacturers of the original "STAR," with ourselves have determined, in order to prevent the great impositions, now being practiced in some parts of the United States, and to save the name of that formerly known as the "STAR" to change the trade mark to L. & R. with the above cut, which has been duly patented Next Season each sack will contain precisely the same Fertilizer as we sold last season, but will be stamped with the new trade mark and the words

——The most interesting trial of speed that has taken place on the North Carolina turf this season occurred a few days ago on the train between Greensboro and Raleigh. Two travelers, having exhausted all other means of entertaining themselves, picked the worms out of a couple of chestnuts and, setting them together, neck and neck, gave the word "go," and then put up their money on the result. The other passengers gathered around and many side bets were taken.

Failure of Edward Matthews, Esq.

We have learned of the failure of Edward Matthews, Esq., of New York city. He is the owner of the Carolina Central Railroad, in North Carolina, having purchased it about two years ago. The failure will of course necessitate the sale of the road, but this will not affect any of our people, as they have no interest in it.

This failure shows how fickle the goddess, dame fortune is. Four years ago the rents of Mr. Matthews in New York city amounted to $800,000 per annum. Unfortunate ventures embarrassed him and he conceived the idea of buying the Carolina Central Railroad. He did so, and put $9,000,000 in bonds on the markets of Europe and America The financial world did not take hold of them, and after staving off disaster as long as possible, the man fell a victim to his "vaulting ambition, which had o'erleaped itself." He is now a hopeless bankrupt, and there is to-day no one so poor as to do reverence to the money king of yesterday.

The Cane Presentation.

This evening, at Metropolitan Hall, the Democratic party will present a gold-headed cane to Gen. W. R Cox, the Chairman of our State Committee, for his able, faithful and self-sacrificing efforts in behalf of our cause during the present campaign. The presentation speech will be made by W. H. Bledsoe, Esq. The ladies are invited to be present and seats will be reserved for them in the front part of the hall. The occasion will be one of great interest, and a large audience will no doubt bear witness to it.

The public generally is invited to be present and hear the speeches which will be delivered on the occasion.

JUDGE MERRIMON LAST NIGHT.

SPEECHES ALSO MADE BY JUDGE FOWLE AND COL. FULLER.

A Large Crowd and Fine Addresses.

According to appointment Hon. A. S. Merrimon spoke at Metropolitan Hall last night, under the auspices of the Mechanics' and Workingmen's Tilden and Vance Club. The hall was well filled, principally by the sturdy men whose counterparts in the club had orignated the speaking, and the orator of the evening was listened to by a respectful, intelligent and understanding audience.

He reached the hall about 8:45 and was escorted down the aisle and up on the stage by Hon. W. H. Battle, N. B. Broughton, Esq, the President of the club already named, and other gentlemen. His appearance was greeted with applause, and after a brief interval he was presented to the assemblage by Mr. Broughton. He apologized in advance by saying that his throat was not in a condition to permit him to address his fellow-citizens, and for this reason he begged their indulgence. He did not come before them to stir their passions with burning words, but to point out to them what he conceived to be their material interest. Momentous issues are before the country and in these none have a deeper interest than workingmen, for it is upon these that the burdens of government fall; they pay the taxes and sustain the government.

The speaker then proceeded to dispose of the charge that the Democratic party was originally responsible for the war. While it was admitted that the secessionists had their part of responsibility in that calamitous event, there was a class in the North who were equally responsible. Besides, the Democratic party of the present day is not the Democratic party of the ante bellum period. It is an organization which embraces in its fold the good men of all former parties, who have united to restore the government to its original purity.

Judge Merrimon stated his three great objections to the Republican party: The first is that it is a law unto itself; it believes in that "higher law; when it conceives an idea its only question is whether it has the power to carry it into effect, and to do this constitutional barriers are ruthlessly overridden when it is necessary. The second objection is that it is a sectional party, and the third that it is a party of extravagance. In substantiation of the latter charge, the speaker quoted a speech of Mr. Dawes, of Massachusetts, the report of Internal Revenue Commissioner Pratt, and other indisputable documents. He showed the enormous expense at which the government had been conducted under Republican rule, comparing it with previous administrations, and adverted to the large proportion of the taxes collected from the people which had been stolen by dishonest officials He entered into a scathing arraignment of the party for its shameless thefts, and was just entering upon another branch of the subject when he found himself unable to proceed further on account of the condition of his throat. It was a strong, statesmanlike speech, and it is to be regretted that it could not be concluded. It was an effort which appealed to the sober sense of men and forced them to consider the facts presented. The speech was full of thought, and all the views were presented after the manner of a statesman.

Judge Merrimon, in concluding, called upon Judge Fowle, who has just returned from the east, and the call being warmly seconded by the crowd, this gentleman came forward and in a few glowing remarks cheered the Democratic heart and won enthusiastic plaudits. He brings glorious reports from the battle in the east.

When he had finished the audience called for Col. T. C. Fuller. He responded very briefly, but in eloquent terms, which caused the house to ring with cheers, and after this the audience dispersed not, however, before they had been informed by Mr. Broughton that fifteen Republicans had during the day given in their names to the club. This information was received with great applause.

The club was then called to order, and a vote of thanks returned to Judge Merrimon. It was resolved that the club meet next Monday night with the Young Men's Tilden and Vance Club, and after a little further business the club adjourned.

Money Paid Out.

During day before yesterday and yesterday the State treasury paid out $28,000 of coupons of the first mortgage bonds of the Western North Carolina Railroad, said coupons falling due November 1st, 1876

Yesterday Col. T. George Walton, treasurer of the Western Insane Asylum, at Morganton, drew from the State treasury $5 500, the remainder of the appropriation made for this institution for the current year.

ANOTHER CARD.

Gov. Vance Still Further Corroborated.

WHAT A. M. McPHEETERS SAYS ABOUT IT.

Editor News:—I see that Governor Vance, in his card in your issue of Tuesday last, refers to me as knowing about the blockade running during the war I was in the Executive office with Gov. Vance during the whole of his administration, either as Confidential Clerk or Private Secretary, and all the correspondence, contracts, &c., passed through my hands, and I have reason to know that Gov. Vance did not ship, on his own account, any but the fifteen bales referred to by him in his card. I know further, that after Mr. Collie made the proposition to him to ship for him fifty bales free, that the other lines, owned by Messrs. Powell Low & Co., and others, sent their agent here and offered to let Gov. Vance ship on each of their steamers five to ten bales of cotton free. A certain number of bales on each steamer were guaranteed to the government of the Confederate States and to the State of North Carolina, and the remainder of the ship's room was the property of the owners of the steamers, and it was in their private room that they offered to let Gov Vance thus ship. I remember distinctly, and have often mentioned it since, that Gov. Vance conferred with me about it and said that while these gentlemen had a perfect right to grant him the privilege, and that there was nothing wrong in his availing himself of their generous offer, yet he would not do it, and he promptly declined the offer. Had he accepted it, as the result proved, it would have been most remunerative to him. No office of trust and honor was ever filled by a more pure, patriotic and honest officer than was the Executive chair of North Carolina when occupied by Zebulon B. Vance. A. M. McPHEETERS.

Railroad Rumor.

The Atlanta & Richmond Air Line Railroad, extending from Charlotte, N. C., to Atlanta, Ga., 266 miles, is next in pursuance of authority contained in a certain deed of trust, and it is rumored that an effort to buy it will be made by John M. Robinson, President of the Raleigh & Gaston and Seaboard & Roanoke Railroads, and the Bay Line Steamers. If this purchase should be made it would give direct communication between Baltimore and Atlanta, via the Bay Line from Baltimore to Portsmouth, the Seaboard & Roanoke from Portsmouth to Weldon, the Raleigh & Gaston from Weldon to Raleigh, the Raleigh & Augusta from Raleigh to Hamlet, the Carolina Central from Hamlet to Charlotte and the Atlanta & Richmond from Charlotte to Atlanta. Of the route named all is complete except a gap of about 20 miles between Cameron and Hamlet, which is already graded.

We do not know that there is anything at all in the rumor which we mention; it is not official or authorized, and the matter may never have been thought of by Mr. Robinson. But even as a possible contingency it is interesting, and hence we give it.

Hon. Daniel G. Fowle.

This distinguished and eloquent orator has just returned from his eastern canvass, and though hoarse and fatigued from his arduous labors, is nevertheless quite well and prepared for the closing work. Since he left here, about three weeks ago, he has spoken at Wilson, Enfield, Norfolk, Currituck C. H., Camden, Elizabeth City, Hertford, Edenton, Plymouth, Williamston, Washington, Greenville, Snow Hill and Goldsboro. At all of these places he had large crowds, and his work has doubtless been as effective in the east as it was in the west.

Judge Fowle will devote the remaining three working days to this county. He will speak to-day at Eagle Rock, to-morrow at Rolesville, and Monday at New Light.

Wants Information.

A postal card stumbled into this office yesterday, addressed as follows: "To any one whom it may concern in North Carolina. Please send it all over the State." It is dated simply: "Virginia, Oct. 25, '76," and reads as follows: "To the friends of Gilbert McCarthany: He was killed in Texas and we cannot find his relations. He told me he was from North Carolina. Those claiming relationship to him will please write to me and I will furnish information that will lead to the estate. Please describe the man and tell his county and connection Please forward this all over the State and publish it in your papers. John Fannie, Virginie, Union county, D. T."

James P. Hayes has a large order for furs and will pay the highest cash price in the State this season. Send for price list. Box 95. 1m.

A PREACHER POLITICIAN.

A Quaker Minister as a Radical Candidate.

[Special Correspondence Raleigh News.]

CANE CREEK, CHATHAM CO., November 1, 1876.

I am informed that Isham Cox, a Quaker preacher, of Chatham county, is a Radical candidate for the Legislature. I am sorry to hear it. It will destroy his usefulness in the ministry. I am as good a Quaker as he is, and have been one just about as long as he has. I have heard him preach a great many times, and he has been my favorite among all the Friends' ministers. I now say that if he were to preach for five hundred consecutive days, within fifty yards of my house, I would not go to hear him. When a man engages in dealing out his politics and his theology from the same pulpit, I reserve to myself the privilege of repudiating him and his politics.

CANE CREEK.

Death of Col. George Little.

This announcement will fall sadly upon our community. But few of our people knew of his illness. He was taken sick at Philadelphia something over a week ago, and arrived at home last Tuesday afternoon, and expired yesterday afternoon at ten minutes past four o'clock. He fell a victim to that fell disease pneumonia.

Col. Little was in his 67th year. He was born in Warren county, but has resided in this city since early manhood. He sprang from an ancient and honorable lineage, having close relationship with some of the leading families in the State.

He was the United States Marshal of this State under the administration of Gen. Taylor, and declined the office, when tendered to him by President Lincoln shortly after his inauguration.

After the close of the war Colonel Little engaged in the real estate business and was deeply interested in developing the resources of our State, making constant efforts to induce emigrants to settle here to till our fertile, but neglected lands. He was President of the North Carolina Land Company and Commissioner of Immigration for this State.

As a man, he was high toned and honorable; as a friend, true and faithful; as a citizen, useful and patriotic; as a gentleman, polished and courteous; as a husband and father, kind and indulgent. In his death Raleigh loses an excellent citizen, North Carolina a devoted son and society an ornament.

The funeral services take place at Christ (Episcopal) Church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

A Case of False Pretence.

James Buck, who is extensively known in the Republican politics of the city, was before Mayor Manly yesterday morning for obtaining money under false pretences. It appears that S. D. Harrison, the present Republican candidate for county treasurer, had bought a number of county orders, which had not been passed upon, for half their face value less 20 per cent. commission. He placed these tickets, to the value of $47.50, in the hands of Buck, and told him to sell them for him. Buck sold them for $40 to W. H. Crow, representing to him that they were worth their face value and were receivable by the sheriff in payment of State and county taxes. The buyer accordingly presented them and they were refused, and he thereupon brings an action against Buck for obtaining money from him under false pretences and with the intent to cheat and defraud him, knowing that the orders were false.

Upon a hearing of the case the Mayor bound Buck over to the Superior Court in the sum of $200.

Appeal to Business Men.

And in this connection, I appeal to our friends in all parts of the State on the day of election to close all places of business, that they, and their employes, may devote that day to their country and aid in inaugurating a reign of law, of reform and reconciliation for the people of this afflicted and unhappy country.—Extract from recent address of Gen. W. R. Cox, Chairman Democratic State Committee.

The above is commended to the consideration of business men throughout the State, and the necessity of heeding the call is earnestly urged upon them. It is a solemn duty which devolves upon every patriotic citizen to lay aside his business for at least one day, and devote this much time to the service of his country and people. We beg the merchants of this and all other places in the State, to comply with the request of Gen Cox, "and aid in inaugurating a reign of law, of reform and reconciliation."

Mr. Askew's Barbecue.

The barbecue at the plantation of Mr. W. F. Askew, near Falls of Neuse to-day, will be largely attended. Preparations have been made to entertain a large crowd. Messrs. W. H. Pace, Seaton Gales and C. M. Busbee are expected to address the people.

PHILLIPS IN ALAMANCE.

He Addresses a few Nigger Boys, Still-House Keepers and Independent Candidates.

[Special Correspondence Raleigh News.]

GRAHAM, N. C., Nov. 1, 1876.

Mr. Editor:

Hon. S. F. Phillips, after having been advertised on almost every barn, shop and stable in this county, expatiated for two hours in the Court House to-day to about fifty negroes, half of whom were boys, and a few white Rads in the shape of still-house keepers and independent candidates. We felt sorry for Samuel. He looked like a man in the last stages of despair. Oh! Samuel, one of North Carolina's degenerate sons! Repent before it's too late.

VOTER.

Speaking at Milburnie.

The county candidates spoke yesterday at Milburnie. Quite a good crowd was present, and the result of the debate was about as it has been at the other points in the county where they have met. All the candidates spoke, none of them at very great length. The county canvass is progressing with very great satisfaction to the Democrats, and our county nominees express themselves as satisfied that they will carry Wake by a very pretty little majority. It is very certain that our side is gaining strength with every day and has been ever since the county canvass opened.

Sad Accident—Crushed to Death by Cotton Seed.

Night before last Mr. Matthew Hicks, who lived near Wake Forest College, in this county, was crushed to death, he and his youngest child, while in bed and asleep. The casualty was occasioned by the falling in of the second floor, it having been overloaded with seed cotton. The wife was also in bed with her husband and child, but escaped without receiving fatal injuries, though she was insensible at last accounts.

Rt. Rev. James Gibbons, D. D.

This distinguished prelate, administered confirmation at St. Thomas' Catholic Church, Wilmington, on Wednesday evening, having just arrived from a visit to Newton Grove, Sampson county, N. C., Wednesday morning, and on Saturday will proceed to Mount Olive, where he will on Sunday bless the new Catholic Church in that vicinity.

Brought Back.

It is learned that Bill Locke, colored, who murdered Mr. Pleasant Barringer, in Rowan county last spring, and fled to Kentucky where he was arrested and jailed, has been delivered to an officer sent after him from Rowan, armed with a requisition from the Governor of this State upon the Governor of Kentucky, and lodged in Salisbury jail.

An Old Name.

We announce through our advertising columns the going back into business of G. T. Stronach & Co.—This firm was one of the most liberal as advertisers and one of the largest of freight payers.

A CARD.

To the People of Harnett County:

The Radicals of this county have seen fit, without my knowledge or consent, to put my name on their ticket in this county for Coroner, and I ask permission to answer through the columns of your paper, that I do not desire that any Radical voter should cast his ballot for me, as I want it distinctly understood that I have no part or parcel in that party; and that I am and have been a Democrat and a white man; and if they think that they can degrade me and my family by attempting to connect me with the party of civil rights and social equality, they are sadly mistaken. I hope to live as I have lived, esteemed by my own and my wife's people, and I desire to say so in your paper. I vote the white man's ticket without a blot.

GEORGE DENNING.

Lillington, N. C., Oct. 30, '76.

Mrs. F. Morrel, Bangor, Me., July 2, '87, writes: "Six months ago my friends thought me incurable, suffering from Weakness, Disordered Stomach and Fever. The doctors gave me no benefit. I was persuaded to try Colden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator; after using three bottles I began to improve, and today feel perfectly well."

NOTICE, DEMOCRATS!

In some of the Democratic Tickets sent out by the State Executive Committee typographical errors have been discovered. These errors run through only a small portion of the tickets, and inasmuch as a large surplus has been sent to the several counties, if our friends are vigilant to detect the erroneous tickets and destroy them, there will still be left more than sufficient for use in the respective counties.

These errors, however, are not of such a character as to affect the validity of the ballot, even should they be voted; but to prevent any possible trouble, Gen. Cox has telegraphed to different parts of the State to use unusual care to destroy the tickets improperly printed; and as the attention of the chairmen of the County Committees was called to this matter by circular a week since, it is not expected that any mistake can possibly occur to our detriment.

A GAME OF DEVILTRY—STAND FIRM, NORTH CAROLINIANS!

Many of the most prominent and best informed Republicans at Washington openly give up the fight. A Washington dispatch to the New York Sun, dated October 29, says:

"Inside the confidential circles of the administration, the defeat of Hayes is now not only admitted, but the belief is expressed that he will lose three or four States which were originally conceded to him without much dispute. * * There are some who still hope against hope, but the general feeling of the administration is one of deep despondency at the prospect."

The gloom of the Republicans is visible everywhere. Uncontrollable fright has seized upon them. The Washington Republican, the President's own organ, cries out, in terror: 'Pluck, gentlemen, pluck! The 'hurrah' of the hour is with the opposition. But we say again, pluck, gentlemen, pluck!"

There is a corresponding buoyancy of feeling among the Democrats. At National headquarters they are in receipt of the most encouraging news from all quarters, and regard the contest as virtually decided.

Now mark the deep villainy of the Republican managers, who cannot bear to loosen their grip on the treasury, or to have their still concealed deeds of darkness dragged to light by a Democratic administration. They are preparing to make a last effort—an onset of despair. And North Carolina is to be saved to them, they say.

The evidence of some game of deviltry having been planned against us, is conclusive. A letter from the Secretary of the National Republican Committee in New York, dated October 12 and addressed to Postmaster Edmunds, of Washington, contained the statement that the loss of Indiana and the probable defeat of Ohio, "can easily be made up by our carrying the four States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Mississippi and Louisiana. Arrangements have nearly been completed whereby the four States above alluded to will be made certain for our ticket." A special telegram to the New York Sun, dated Washington, October 30, contains the following highly important intelligence:

Information has reached here that the Republican National Committee, regarding New York as a hopeless State, are now concentrating their resources on North Carolina. There is undoubtedly a game of deviltry on foot with respect to North Carolina similar to the frauds by which it was carried for Grant in 1872, but the best belief is that the majority this time is too large to be swept away by any ordinary frauds.

Mr. August Belmont, in a great speech in New York several nights ago, said:

"Moreover, let us not be blind to the desperation, nigh, and already they have begun their onsets of despair.

"Assessing again, in flagrant violation of a law of Congress, the 100,000 members of the civil service for a new corruption fund, they are pouring its defiling streams into North Carolina for a solvent of the "solid South"—these professors of civil service reform!"

This is enough. It is very clear that the Republicans are making a desperate effort to wrest from our grasp the victory which we have already won. It is too late to try the bayonet plan on us. Besides all the troops are engaged in destroying the liberties of South Carolina. Fraud and money—not the musket, are to be used in this State. The slyest modes of sneak-thief politicians are to be employed in this game of deviltry, instead of the bolder but not more villainous methods of the red-handed robber.

This wicked plot against our peaceful, quiet, law-abiding State, can easily be defeated, if North Carolinians will stand firm against bribes and threats. Tell the sneaking scoundrels to go back to Washington with their corruption funds. North Carolinians are not to be bought and sold like sheep in the shambles. The unfolding of this game of deviltry should arouse every honest or decent voter, in North Carolina, to renewed exertions. Give your time from now until sunset on the 7th, to your country—the land you love, the home of your wife and children. Work, every man, with that energy and determination which is born of the conviction of right and a just indignation at wrong; and save the State from the clutches of the office-holders, the rings, the jobbers, the thieves, the carpet-baggers, and the foul-mouthed scallawags, who are conspiring against the rights, the liberties and the propty of the State. Victory is within our grasp. We will not be robbed of it.

NOW REGISTER!

To-day, to-morrow and Monday, are the only days remaining on which voters in this State who have not already registered can do so. The books are open from 7 a. m. to 6 p. m. each day, and the number and arrangement of the places of registration are such that every voter can register without loss of time. If Monday night the lists close on any citizen who has not availed himself of the citizen's right, the fault will be his own, though the misfortune may be that of his city or his county, or his State, or even his country, for every vote counts. There can be no excuse for neglect where all the facilities are so ample.

Register, therefore, that you may do your part as a citizen and as an American. Register, that the vote may be as full as the all-important issue demands, and the verdict may be the verdict of the people. Register your honest vote against the frauds already inscribed upon the books. Register that as many honest votes may be cast as the honest men can assure. Register, and register now! And overthrow Radicalism forever!

REPUBLICAN ASSAULTS UPON THE CHURCHES.

The Republicans, in their desperation, are assaulting the churches. Daniel Russell, Republican Elector-at-Large, made a villainous assault upon the Catholics, at South Washington on the 30th inst. He said "the leaders of the Democratic party are the greatest scoundrels in America, except the Roman Catholics of New York."

The assault made upon the Methodist Church by T. L. Hargrove, Radical candidate for Attorney-General, is too well known for reiteration.

The outrageous, unparalleled attack recently made by the Spirit of the South, a Republican organ, upon a leading Baptist minister, is fresh in the recollections of the public. Such blackguarding we have never seen even in Radical newspapers—even in the Constitution, the vilest of all the Hayes and Wheeler sheets.

Some days ago we published an address to the people of the United States signed by

S. Y. Tupper, President Charleston Chamber of Commerce; W. M. Whitman, Bishop Methodist Episcopal Church South; J. B. W. Howe, D. D., Bishop Diocese of South Carolina; P. N. Lynch, D. D., Bishop of Charleston; John Forrest, D. D., Pastor First Presbyterian Church, G. R. Brackett, Pastor Second Presbyterian Church; J. L. Girardeau, D. D., Professor Theological Seminary; J. A. Chambliss, Pastor Citadel square Baptist Church; L. Muller, D. D., Pastor St. Matthew's Lutheran Church; W. S. Bowman, Pastor Wentworth Lutheran Church; P. F. Stevens, Presbyter Reformed Episcopal Church; W. B. Yates, Chaplain to Seamen; David Levi, Minister Congregation Bethlehem.

These eminent divines are characterized by the President's own organ, the Washington Republican, as "the offspring of the devil;" and the noble, eloquent, christian appeal which they made is declared by the same paper, to be "the most shameless and devilish piece of effrontery that could, under any circumstances, be ever conceived of by any people anywhere on the face of this green earth."

Bob Ingersoll, the leading Hayes orator of the North, attacks the Presbyterian Church on every stump. "A corrupt combination of fools" is his name for that noble, venerable institution of God. This same Republican leader said of the Lord whom all churches worship:

"Search the records of the whole world, find out the history of every barbarous tribe, and you can find no crime that touched a lower depth of infamy and approved. For such a God I have no words to express my loathing and contempt, and all the words in all the languages of man would scarcely be sufficient. Away with such a God!"

A party whose organs and speakers have not even ordinary respect for religion, and which exalts foul-mouthed and blasphemous infidels to the positions of demi-gods, does not deserve the support of decent people. Yet there are white men in North Carolina, as well as elsewhere, who, naming the name of Christ, still remain members of this mocking, and satanic political faction.

SLANDERING VANCE AGAIN.

The Constitution of November 1st contains a card from William W. Holden, in which he insinuates that Governor Vance was in "full sympathy" with the men who destroyed his office.

This is not true. The Standard office was destroyed at 10 o'clock on the night of September 9th, 1863. The next morning a mob of citizens destroyed the State Journal office, in retaliation. It was not in Gov. Vance's power to have prevented either, as he was not forewarned. The next day, Sept. 10th, he wrote to President Davis a letter, in which he said:

"As it is my intention to enforce the laws rigidly against all citizens who participated in the second mob, so I feel it my duty to demand that punishment may be inflicted on the officers who assisted or countenced the first. Should this not be done, I shall feel it my duty to demand the persons of these officers of the State of Georgia, to answer the demands of justice."

On September 11th, Gov. Vance wrote another letter to President Davis, in which he said:

"For sixty hours I have travelled up and down, making speeches alternately to citizens and soldiers, without rest or sleep almost, engaged in the the humiliating task of trying to defend the law and peace of the State against our own bayonets."

Now cease, viper, from your impotent malice. You bite against a file.

CATHOLICS, CAN YOU SUPPORT THE REPUBLICAN PARTY?

How any true Catholic can support the Republican party, or endorse with their votes the men who are running as its candidates, is something we utterly fail to understand. We say this because it is a well-known fact that no class of people on the face of the civilized globe hold their faith in greater love and reverence than the Catholics, and they always promptly and properly resent any contumely attempted to be cast on it.

Now what has the Republican party done in this direction? Its leading journals are daily filled with the vilest abuse and slander of the Catholic Church and its Prelates; its national standard-bearer, Rutherford B. Hayes, is a member of the American Alliance, an association organized in avowed hostility to this Church; its National Executive Committee have been flooding the country with documents abusive of everything dear to the Catholic heart, not even sparing in its filthy abuse the earthly head of the Church the Sovereign Pontiff—a man who has extorted admiration from the enemies who surround him in Europe by the sanctity of his life, the profundity of his wisdom and the christian heroism and firmness displayed under trials the most severe and perplexing.

Their orators on the stump have occupied themselves in appeals to arouse prejudice and hatred in the bosoms of those who hold another faith. In a word the Republican party, its leaders and organs, hesitate not to say that the Catholic Church is a hot bed of corruption and tyranny, and its members timid and truckling slaves.

No longer ago than Monday, on the stump in Pender county, Daniel L. Russell, one of the Hayes electors at large for this State, declared "that the Democrats were the greatest scoundrels in America, except the Roman Catholics."

Catholics of North Carolina, Catholics of Raleigh, can you and will you endorse this wicked and infamous crusade upon your Church by voting for the candidates of the Republican party, National, State, County, Township or Municipal? We hope and believe not.

THE Republicans are attempting to carry this State by fraud and bribery. If Judge Settle does not denounce such villainy, he deserves to share the eternal infamy of the Mortons, Chandlers, Kilpatricks, Poels, Holdens, Chamberlains, and other desperate and degraded politicians.

ALBION W. TOURGEE, the carpet-bagger, assails General Matt Ransom in the Constitution. This is in accordance with Gov. Holden's idea, that a cat may make ugly faces at a king

GOV. HOLDEN, where is the furniture which was surrendered by Mrs. Gov. Vance at Statesville in 1865? Come, tell us all about it.

DOES Isaac J. Young approve of Chandler's scheme for carrying North Carolina by bribery and fraud? Silence gives consent.

DOES Judge Settle approve of the game of deviltry planned by the Republicans against North Carolina? Silence gives consent.

DOES Billy Smith approve of the plan to carry this State by money and rascality? Silence gives consent.

THE ELECTION.

Harnett.

Harnett will go Democratic by at least 400.

Orange.

Orange, it is said by those who know the county well, will push 1000 Democratic majority hard.

Hertford.

The news from Hertford is very encouraging. A strong canvass has been made in the county, and the prospect is bright for a Democratic triumph.

Chowan.

In Chowan a strong fight has been made in the cause of Reform and the present indications are, so a reliable correspondent informs us, favorable to Democratic success, at least for the county ticket.

Rockingham.

Rockingham will give at least five hundred majority for Vance, notwithstanding it has been terribly Balled and Settled lately. Vance stock is on the increase since the joint discussion at Wentworth.

First Congregessional District.

The election of Yeates over Lindsay, by a large increase over the majority of 1874, is assured.

Halifax County.

Halifax will poll 200 white votes more than she has done at any previous election. White Radicals are few and far between there.

Johnston County.

All of Billy Smith's mean whisky and ill-gotten money can't carry Johnston for him. The county will give, beyond all doubt, the Democrats 500 majority.

Wayne.

Wayne county will be close with chances in favor of the Democrats.

Second Congressional District.

Governor Brogden says that Settle will make no gains in the 2d Congressional District.

Edgecombe.

Edgecombe will poll her usual heavy negro majority.

Lenoir.

Lenior is expected to give Vance a majority ranging from 75 to 125.

Currituck.

Currituck will, it is thought, increase the Democratic majority at least 100.

The number of this year's crop of maiden voters is estimated at 400,000—enough to turn the scale in some of the States. The New York World thinks the maiden voter doesn't look upon plundering the public under cover of the bloody shirt as the noblest work of man to any great extent.

STATE CANVASS.

The Democrats of Stanly county say they will carry it in a whoop.

Nearly all of our Weekly papers have said their last word in this campaign.

In every town of any size places of business will be closed on election day.

The Concord Sun says that Vance, Leach and Ransom will be there to-day.

A vote against the Constitutional Amendments is a vote to encourage crime.

The Concord Sun says that the canvass in Cabarrus has been a strong and glorious one.

Union county is expected to give Vance an increase of about 100 over the majority for Merrimon in 1872.

The voice of Hon. C. C. Clark, of Newbern, is ringing out clear and strong in the cause of right and honesty.

The Rads are trying to bribe their way to a respectable vote, numerically speaking of course, in Buncombe.

Everything is said to look lovely in Stokes county as far as a large Tilden and Vance majority is concerned.

The cause of Reform is said to be gaining ground every day in Montgomery county. Our friends say they count on a decisive majority.

Wilson Cary, col., of Caswell, a candidate for the lower House of the General Assembly, is said to be in favor of the intermarriage of the races. Of course he opposes the adoption of the Constitutional Amendments.

When Governor Vance came up the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad the other night the train was besieged at at every station with people anxious to shake hands with him. At Weldon he was saluted with booming cannon.

POLITICAL NOTES.

So desperate have become the chances of Hayes' election that the Herald suggests it would be well for the Rads in Indiana to drop him and unite upon Peter Cooper.

The leading white citizens of Charleston have issued an address to the colored voters, inviting them to aid in establishing and perpetuating amicable relations between the white and colored races.

In 1872 Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Delaware, Indiana, Oregon and West Virginia went against us; this year we have carried all of them. The Radicals have not only lost these States, but they gained none. These are straws that do show which way the wind of popular favor is blowing.

The reception given to Mr. Tilden Monday evening by the Manhattan Club was a brilliant affair. Mr. Belmont made the speech of welcome. Speeches were also made by Senator Stockton, of New Jersey; Gov. Walker, of Virginia, and Senator Wallace, of Pennsylvania, the last predicting a majority for Tilden in that State. Gov. Tilden made no speech, but was the centre of a group, in active conversation all the evening, and looked extraordinarily well and vigorous.

The latest returns disclose the singular fact that the incoming West Virginia Legislature will be Democratic by exactly the same majority as its predecessor—forty seven on joint ballot. The new one will elect two United States Senators—one to succeed Henry J. Davis Democrat, whose term expires next March, and the other to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Allen T. Caperton. Amongst the candidates already announced for the vacant places are Henry J. Davis, C. J. Faulkner, Samuel Price, Frank Hereford and Henry G. Walker.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

REPUBLICAN RASCALITY.

Governor Chamberlain's Conspiracy to Carry the State—Hundreds of Democrats to be Imprisoned Until after Election—Preparations for a Fraudulent Count.

I am in receipt of further information this evening, which not only confirms my previous predictions as to the wholesale system of arbitrary arrests to be inaugurated on the eve of the election, but develops a stupendous plot on the part of the federal attaches of the Department of Justice and the Governor to intimidate white and colored Democrats and defeat a free election. In Aiken county the plan is to arrest large numbers of those already bailed by the United States Commissioners on affidavits of negroes and warrants to be issued, this time by State trial justices.

CHARACTER OF THE CHARGES.

The affidavits upon which these warrants are to be issued charge the accused parties, not with intimidation of voters, but with unlawful shooting and being engaged in riots on or about the 17th. 18th and 19th of September last. Some of the charges are said to be for murder. These arrests are to be made on the 4th and 6th of November. The State law requires a notice of four days to obtain a hearing on a writ of habeas corpus for release before either two trial justices or a circuit judge. The result is that the parties so arrested will be

and held there, if necessary, by the aid of federal troops until the election is over. This conspiracy is regarded as the most daring and high-handed yet attempted, and, even with the presence of the federal troops, it is not altogether certain that it will be submitted to. There are low mutterings and forebodings of a popular outourst, and such tyrannical acts as these may possibly precipitate the storm, notwithstanding the determination of peaceable submission under any and all circumstances. The alleged offences for which these arrests are to be made occurred about the 17th of September. The affidavits on which the warrants are based have been in the hands of the United States District Attorney and the Governor for weeks past, many of them having been substantially published in a Republican organ in New York sometime since, but they have been purposely held back until the eve of the election to defeat the will of the people, and, if possible,

PROVOKE A COLLISION

with the troops. On Saturday thirteen additional arrests were made in Aiken county by the United States deputy marshals, all of the parties, with two others already confined, being still in jail. The District Attorney is reported to have over 800 warrants upon which to make arrests on Saturday and Monday preceding the election in Aiken and Barnwell already prepared, and 600 to 700 for Edgefield and the surrounding counties. These arrests of course will include all leading citizens, and are intended to overawe the people and overcome the Democratic majorities in the counties named. The plot creates great excitement among the few Democrats to whom it has become known

THE PROSPECTS.

With all the civil and military appliances of the federal government in his hands, together with the entire election machinery of the State, it is almost impossible to believe that Chamberlain can be defeated. The Board of State Canvassers is composed at present, with one exception, of candidates for re-election on the Republican ticket. The names of the candidates on the Electoral, Congressional, Legislative, State and County tickets are all placed on the same ballot, so that the canvassers, in deciding the election of any candidate, are practically giving judgment in their own case. The inferior boards are also largely made up of candidates for office or appointees of the Governor. In Laurens, a doubtful county, one of the three commissioners is the Republican candidate for Senator, and another is the Republican candidate for the House. In Fairfield the chairman of the board is the Republican candidate for the House, and one of the Republican precinct federal supervisors is a candidate for county commissioner.

A prominent Republican says that a majority of all the commissioners in the State are either Republican candidates or appointees of the Governor. It will thus appear that under the present system the Republicans would be the gainers by a contest. A number of the counties will be close.—Cor. N. Y. Herald.

CARL SCHURZ IN 1872 ON THE SOUTH.

The Thieves and the Negroes.

[Buffalo Courier, Oct. 18]

The thieves control these negroes, and it was under their influence that they have been arrayed against the whites. The blacks and the whites stand face to face as enemies—for the negroes are under the influence of the most villainous scoundrels that were ever allowed to disgrace a great and noble country. If there can be anything worse than civil war it is the war of races; and these scoundrels have adopted just the very means to bring about such a war. At the head of the negroes are the great thieves that rule the South and rely on Grant for support. The support is given to them freely, and every possible means has been taken to make them blind instruments of the powers that be. The Republican party is responsible for the condition of the South I will not be a Republican to deliver the Southern people over to the worst set of scoundrels that ever obtained political powers. We are fighting for the overthrow of a system—a system of unconstitutional arrogance of power, a system of contempt of law, a system of government by force, a system of plundering in the South and of corruption in the North, such a party when it has come to that, does not deserve to live.

VERY CROOKED ACCOUNTS OF PENNSYLVANIA REPUBLICAN OFFICIALS.

Treasurer Widener, of Philadelphia, Only $308,640.30 Out of the Way.

[New York World]

Facts were developed several months ago, showing that this State had been swindled by county and city treasurers out of thousands of dollars, which these officials received as fees for license. The City Treasurer of Scranton, who swindled the commonwealth out of $5 000, knowing that his crime would be detected, confessed his guilt to the State authorities, with the understanding that he should escape punishment. A Republican treasurer of the same county who was in a similar predicament admitted that he had dishonestly withheld $20,000 from the State. Several other treasurers were discovered to have been prosecuting a similar business. These officials were aided by clerks in the Treasurer and Auditor-General's departments, and nearly all the frauds were committed under Republican administration. In view of these discoveries of fraud Auditor-General Temple (Democrat) requested his clerk to make a thorough investigation of the settlements made by county and city treasurers. An examination of the accounts of Treasurer Widener, of Philadelphia, revealed a discrepancy of large magnitude. Messrs. B. M. Nead and John McMurray, clerks, have made a report to the Auditor-General in which it is set forth that the mercantile appraisers' lists of Philadelphia for 1874 and 1875, filed in the Auditor-General's office and on which, by law, the account of the Treasurer should be settled, show that Widener has returned to the State $308 640.30 less than the amount represented in the lists. Mr. Widener first became Treasurer in 1871, but the lists for 1872 and 1873 are so mutilated that the clerks could not examine them intelligently, and they were consequently passed over for the present. Widener has been notified of the discrepancies in his accounts, and he has had several weeks to explain them. He pretends to be innocent, and expresses a willingness to straighten any crookedness that may be found.

A few weeks ago Auditor-General Temple sent a clerk to the Internal Revenue Department at Washington with a polite letter to the Commissioner requesting permission to examine the lists of the United States licenses paid by Philadelphia liquor dealers. The object was to institute a comparison between the returns made to the Internal Revenue Department and to the Auditor-General's office. H C. Rogers, acting Commissioner, refused the clerk access to the lists, but directed him to Collector Elliott, of Philadelphia. This official also refused, but informed the clerk that he would write to Washington for instructions. In reply, Commissioner Rogers stated that the Revised Statutes required that the lists be opened to public inspection, but that they did not contemplate interruption of public business for the purpose of furnishing copies or allowing transcripts to be made therefrom. The Auditor-General's clerk guaranteed that the business of the office should not be interrupted, and that the required clerical force would be furnished by the State, but the Collector would not allow the proposed investigation to be made under any circumstances. Widener's accounts, as settled by the Auditor-General, have been transmitted to the State Treasurer for approval.

Hampton's Day.

[Journal of Commerce, Oct 31.]

The community of Charleston yesterday showed the purpose of its people to live, and not to die the death of carpet-bag destruction. The life and death struggle for home rule and free government, for civilization and good morals, for property and business, was fully recognized, and the order of the day was the redemption of the State and the country. The places of business were all closed. Innumerable flags were suspended across the streets on the line of march Under the banners of Tilden and Hendricks, Hampton and Reform, the white men of the city, and a large number of colored men, moved with an enthusiasm and earnestness not seen for many a year. Men frosted with the snows of eighty winters walked in the procession along with their grandchildren, showing how deeply their hearts were enlisted in the great cause. The ladies filled the windows and balconies, waving their handkerchiefs in the presence of their beloved chief. Every available horse and saddle in the city was put in requisition for the mounted men, and the spirit and excitement were manifested by continued cheering, interrupted only by music from the bands.

The procession is said to have contained eight thousand persons, including two thousand horsemen, one-fourth of whom were colored men.

The speaking was admirable and most effective, and attentively listened to throughout, a large number of colored men being in the audience.

The most influential German paper in the United States is the Staats Zeitung. It said a few days ago that it was perfectly assured that the Democrats will carry Indiana, Connecticut, New Jersey and Wisconsin, and that a Democratic majority in Ohio would be no surprise. It further says: "New York will go for Tilden and Reform, and as New York goes so the Union will go."

"Throw Physic to the Dogs; I'll None of It."

We do not in the least feel like blaming Macbeth for this expression of disgust; indeed, we are rather inclined to sympathize with him. Even nowadays most of the cathartics offered to the public are great, repulsive-looking pills, the very appearance of which is sufficient to "turn one's stomach." Had Macbeth ever taken Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets he would not have uttered those words of contempt. It is really encoursging, when one is ill, to find that a little, sugar-coated Pellet, no larger than a grain of mustard, will as promptly produce the desired effect as a dose of great, nauseating pills. These little Pellets, unlike other cathartics, are really nature's physic. They do not debilitate, but tone and invigorate the system. No family should be without Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets.

Russia gives Turkey 48 Hours to Make Up Her Mind---Collission at Sea.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The latest reports of the situation at Constantinople is that the Porte offered a counter proposition to Russia's ultimatum. Ignatieff rejected the Porte's offer and gave the Turks 48 hours Tuesday night to reconsider the matter. The furniture of the embassy is prepared for shipment and the Russian Consuls in the interior have been ordered to move within reach of the frontier.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

FROM NEW YORK.

Governor Tilden's Proclamation---Meeting of the Chamber of Commerce---Hell Gate Affairs.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Gov. Tilden this morning issued a proclamation regarding the improper use of money at the election. The proclamation concludes: "Now, therefore, I call upon all District Attorneys, and other public officers, to be vigilant in detecting, and diligent in prosecuting persons guilty of the crime referred to within their respective counties, and I respectfully ask all good citizens of the State to aid them in their efforts."

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this morning Capt. Snow, of the special committee on the question of the depth of water at Hallett's Point, reported that the committee had held communication with General Newton, and had ascertained that the debris of the explosion was being rapidly cleaned away.

Mr. George W. Blunt reported that another explosion had occurred this morning at Eliamond reef, and that General Newton would soon have twenty-four feet of water over that reef.

Mr. Vanbrunt suggested that the charge for Hell Gate pilotage which had always been oppressive should be removed by the action of the Legislature, and recommended that the Chamber should take some action at the proper time for the purpose of securing the passage of a measure which would remove this toll on shipping passing through Hell Gate. The report was adopted.

WASHINGTON.

The Lie on the New York World---Personal.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2—The New York World denies that the matter represented as being from its columns of Oct. 20th, 1876, being circulated in circular form, headed "Read, Ponder and Reflect," throughout the Southern States, ever so appeared, and states that it is a bold and brazen forgery.

Indian Commissioner Smith has gone to Indiana for election purposes.

FOREIGN.

The Armistice Signed---Servians Want to Know if the Turks Have Got the News.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Globe this afternoon announces that it understands that the foreign office has received information that an armistice was signed yesterday.

BELGRADE, Nov. 2.—The Servian government has instructed General Tchernoyeff to send a flag of truce to Abdul Kerim, the Turkish commander-in-chief and inquire whether he has been notified of the conclusion of an armistice.

An Attempted Blow up of a House---Soiled Doues Accused of the Act.

RONDOUT, N. Y., Nov. 2—The entire front of the residence of Augustus Suppies, in this city, was blown out this morning at 3 o'clock by a charge of powder which was placed in a window by some malicious person. The building was shattered and the furniture damaged. Mr. Suppies, his wife and three daughters who were sleeping in the upper part of the house, were uninjured. Suppies was a complainant against a house of ill-fame and suspicions point in that direction. The motive of the act seems to have been revenge with the intention to destroy the entire family. The inmates of the house of ill-fame have been arrested, but the proprietor, named Keyser, is away from town.

Another Coat of Whitewash for Henry Ward Beecher.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2—The Congregational Association closes its report on Mr. Beecher as follows:

"And whereas, the preceding report of said committee indicates that there is no substantial ground for believing in the guilt of Mr. Beecher: be it therefore,

Resolved, That we do therefore, as an association, regard our brother as worthy of our confidence and love, and express to him our sympathy in the severe trial through which he has passed."

A Political Meeting Breaks Up in a Row.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2.—General Auger, commanding the department, received a dispatch from Artesia, Miss., stating that a meeting there yesterday ended in a free fight, and the wounding of six negroes, one of them mortally. The United States troops were called upon by the citizens, and their prompt appearance prevented further disturbance. All is quiet now. The citizens desire the troops to remain to prevent a repetition of the riot.

THE BAYONET AT THE POLLS.

THE PRESIDENT CALLS A COUNCIL OF WAR IN A TIME OF PROFOUND PEACE.

General Sheridan to take Immediate Command in Person at New Orleans.

[Special Despatch to the N. Y. World.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.

An important conference was held at the Executive Mansion to-day by the President. Lieutenant General Sheridan, General Sherman and Secretary of War Cameron. Gen. Sheridan was summoned here by telegraph, and arrived this morniug, and left this evening direct for Chicago. After the meeting at the White House, another conference was held by General Sherman and General Sheridan. Both referred to the situation of the bayonet rule in the South, and its aggressions in the immediate future. The pretense of disorders in Louisiana and Mississippi, which is made by the Radicals in letters and telegrams to Attorney-General Taft, is the direct cause of Sheridan's visit. Those two States and Arkansas and Texas are in the department of which he is the military commander, with headquarters at Chicago. The troops which have been solicited by United States marshals, by virtue of the Taft order, have to be forwarded, therefore, under Sheridan's direction. It was found, on looking over the location of the infantry and cavalry west of the Missi-sippi, that it would be a somewhat difficult task to get more than 2,000 troops into either State by Monday next. Companies A and K, Sixteenth Infantry, at Newport barracks, Ky.; companies A and E, at Atlanta, Ga., and Company B, of the same regiment, at Lebanon, Ky., are the only forces available immediately, but if the troops under General Pope's command, at Leavenworth, Kansas, can be transferred in time they will undoubtedly be sent to New Orleans and Baton Rogue and Vicksburg. In the meantime, the force of regular infantry now in Louisiana is to be used at once to sustain the deputy marshals in their outrageous and illegal intimidation of Democratic voters in the arrests they have made and threaten in large numbers in New Orleans. It is not improbable that Sheridan will arrive in the latter city on Monday evening next to take command in person. It is the opinion of the President that he ought to go there at once, but Sheridan is loth to run the risk of disgracing himself again in that city. It is optional with him after his return to Chicago to-morrow night. It is well to notice that the promise made in the tell-tale letter published in Monday's World, that the Republicans had made arrangements to carry South Carolina and Louisiana is verified already fully. Those two States and Mississippi are to be carried for Hayes and Wheeler at the point of the bayonet, if enough bayonets can be had in time to do it.

Preparing in South Carolina---The Army Placed at the Disposal of Local Politicians.

[Special to the World.]

AIKEN, S. C., Oct. 31, '76

Gen. Ruger has issued orders that troops shall remain in camp on the day of election, and not go near the polls except upon the call of the U. S. Marshal or deputy, thus placing the troops absolutely under the control of the Republican managers, to be used as they see fit. Up to this time 153 white citizens have been arrested. It is rumored that the day preceding the election 100 more will be arrested and held until November 8. Captain Mills, commanding this post, has been summoned to Columbia by Gen. Ruger. On his return to-morrow the distribution of troops for election purposes will probably take place.

The Use of Troops Rebuked by Ex-Attorney-General Stanbery.

[Special Dispatch to the World.]

CINCINNATI, O., October 31.

Henry M. Stanbery, ex-Attorney-General of the United States, in an open letter to the Enquirer denounces Grant's proclamation and consequent ordering of troops to South Carolina as entirely unwarranted and unauthorized by the Constitution and by the facts in the case as detailed by the proclamation itself. The opinion has been prepared with much care, and is based on points of law and the Constitution, which are defined with great clearness.

Forestalling Disease.

When we see that death is so often the penalty paid for a fatuous disregard of the symptoms of approaching disease, should we not be warned against the folly of neglecting defensive measures when called for in our own case? Assuredly we should, and upon the first manifestation of ill health or decay of physical vigor, seek the aid of medicine. The fortifying influence upon the system of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters entitles that medicine of many virtues to the highest consideration as a preventive, and it cannot be too strongly recommended as a means of arresting the progress of malarious fevers, dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint kidney and bladder troubles, gout, rheumatism, and other disorders which in their incipiency are far more easily overcome than in their maturity—albeit, the great alterative has repeatedly demonstrated its power to vanquish their worst phases.
